BOMBAY, Apr. 22
TRISHNA' is back here with frothing memories of a 14-day cruise of Arabian Sea, upto Kavaratti, the palm-fringed island headquarters of Lakshadweep, covering a distance of 1300 nautical miles.

The 37-foot yacht was taken on the sailing expedition sponsored by Sapper Adventure Foundation by seven officers of the Corps of Engineers.

The team was led by skipper, Major K. S. Rao, SM, accompanied by Major A. P. Singh and Lt. S. Shekhar, who had recently sailed to UK on the same yacht. The other officers were Major A. Bhattacharya, Capt. R. Bassi, Lt. Kampraj and 2nd Lt. N. Ahuja. The expedition started from here on April 5 and got back on April 19.

The expedition was in preparation for a round-the-world cruise scheduled for this September.
